TheVagar Country House

BELMONTE, PORTUGAL

Discover TheVagar Country House, a hidden gem within the UNESCO Global Estrela Geopark, where luxury and nature meet in perfect harmony. Surrounded by awe-inspiring historic villages and the majestic Serra da Esperança mountain range, this family-run property offers an immersive experience that goes beyond traditional hospitality.

Spread over 605 acres, TheVagar is home to nine miles of private trails, inviting guests to explore the unspoiled beauty of the surrounding landscape. From the serene vastness of the Serra da Esperança to the panoramic views of the valley, every view promises awe and inspiration, making The Vagar a haven of tranquillity.

Indulge in the luxury of TheVagar's six meticulously designed suites, each offering understated elegance and comfort. Spacious balconies frame the natural splendour, offering guests a retreat of serenity amid the rugged beauty of the mountains.

At TheVagar, experience more than just a hotel; immerse yourself in unique experiences designed to awaken the senses and enrich the soul. From rejuvenating forest baths to invigorating ice baths, embark on a journey of self-discovery. Jeep tours through rugged terrain and moments of serenity by the infinity saltwater pool enhance the experience.

Embrace holistic wellness with experiences surrounded by breathtaking valley views. Aromatic baths with wild lavender and rosemary, massages with local organic olive oil and forest-fringed ice baths offer bliss and rejuvenation.

With Biosphere certification, TheVagar embodies a commitment to sustainability that prioritises people, the environment and the economy. From preserving historic structures to supporting local businesses, sustainability is woven into every aspect of the guest experience.

During your stay at TheVagar, savour the delights of locally sourced, seasonal and organic food. Indulge in crusty bread with organic jam and foraged fruit smoothies for breakfast, followed by sun-dried tomato salads for lunch. Afternoon tea offers freshly baked cakes, while dinner features cockle-warming soups and platters of cheeses and charcuterie from local farms.
